"Southwestern Ontario continues to be a strategic location for Avison Young in Ontario," says Martin Dockrill, Avison Young principal and COO, global operations. "The region's knowledge-, service- and technology-based economy, together with its growing population and excellent universities, make the area well-positioned for the world's new economy."

Avison Young has six offices in its Ontario region. Avison & Associates was founded in Toronto in 1989 and subsequently became Avison Young in 1996. The firm has since opened Ontario-based offices in Toronto West (1997), Ottawa (2007), Toronto North (2009) and Southwestern Ontario (as an affiliate in 2010), as well as a property management office in downtown Toronto in 2008.
